To All Our Triadelphia Church Family,

In Hebrews, Paul invites us to believe and put our confidence in Jesus. He alone has the solution to all of our problems and difficulties. We must listen to His voice, trust His promises, and wait upon Him.

Paul quotes Psalm 95:7 a total of three times and then invites us to obey and

“do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion.” Hebrews 3:15 (NKJV)

With so much conflict and pain in our world, it is easy to lose sight of God, to lose our faith in Him, and to fall into unbelief. The only way to counteract this danger is to open His Word daily and spend time with Him. Thus, we will hear His voice and learn to trust Him more.
