To All Our Triadelphia Church Family,

This Sabbath, we have the beautiful opportunity to witness
Five Baptisms:

Zemini Astatkie
Lal Mawi
Christina San
Vanilla Tun
Philippe Zgheib

We praise God for these five precious individuals publicly declaring their allegiance to God. This decision is so important that Jesus said to John the Baptist,

"... for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Matthew 3:15.

This is, without doubt, the best decision anyone could make. As disciples of Jesus, we are invited to learn from Him and share our hope of salvation with others.

Pray for each person who tomorrow will declare before God and witnesses,
"I surrender all."

~ Pastor Sam

To All Fathers this Father's Day Weekend

At the dawn of time, God looked down on all He had made and said, "I need a caretaker....someone who's tough...yet gentle...strong...gracious...brave...wise... listens more than he talks...will stand by his family through good times and bad...who will provide for the family...do whatever needs to be done. Yes, that's exactly what I need," thought God. "A father to love my children, Someone ... well, someone like Me." So, God made a father.

Excerpts from May Patterson's poem: So God Made a Father

This Sunday, June 19, our nation celebrates fathers. But what if your father is no longer here? Or your relationship with him is broken or not what you would wish? Even if you cannot celebrate with your earthly father this Father's Day, you can celebrate with your Heavenly Father. If you belong to God, then you have a great Father. And you can never be called fatherless. You are a treasured member of His family. So, Happy Father's Day to all the fathers in our Triadelphia Family.

Word of the Day

"Come now, and let us reason together," says the Lord.

"Though your sins are like scarlet,
They shall be as white as snow;
Though they are red like crimson,
They shall be as wool."

Isaiah 1:18 (NKJV)
